KICKSHAWS

Two from the Letterer

(1) SCENT-CENT-SENT (2) WHERE-HERE-WERE [Rich Lederer]

I, Rebus

“B, U, T” lies in the I of the bee-holder. [Jim Puder]

Anger, Languor, Clangor, Hangar, _____?

The fourth English word that rhymes with anger is angor, which one dictionary defines as “great anxiety accompanied by painful constriction of the upper part of the belly.”

Missing for some reason from Webster's Third, angor may be found in the Random House unabridged dictionary, among others.

[Jim Puder]

Name that Distinction

Half of the words in the list complete common colloquial expressions when preceded by “in the,” and the other half do so when preceded by “on the”; “in the bag,” “on the ball,” etc.
