wollte, ganz allein und nackt auf einem abgemagerten schmutzigen Pferde entgegengeritten sei...

My search did turn up some further candidate windows in Portuguese, but I discount these because they all use one or more of the seven required letters as gen-une Roman numerals (e.g., “único monumento i(mportante do seculo XV que possui)a aquella cidade”). It’s therefore an open question as to whether there exist perfect Roman windows in Portuguese literature, or for that matter that of any other language besides English, French, and German.
