Dear Dr. Lineweaver:

Enclosed is a manuscript to be considered for publication in the Butler Journal of Undergraduate Research. As a retrospective cohort study, this research was completed in conjunction with St. Vincent Hospital and Health Services and Butler University without funding.

As primary author, I have obtained full permission from my corresponding author to submit this article for publication with your journal. The corresponding author is Zach Tyrcha, PharmD. This article, in its entirety, is original work and has not been adopted or modified from any other source.

This letter also serves to certify that I have not submitted this article for publication with any other journal and is not currently under review elsewhere. This article was completed within the scope pharmacy and cardiology, so the preferred category for this article would pertain to one of these medical disciplines.

I do not have any conflicts of interest. My graduation date from the College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences of Butler University is May 9, 2015.

Thank you for your review of my manuscript.

Sincerely,

Lisa LeCleir, PharmD
