One of our favorite 4-letter words has sparked this display of old-fashioned entertainments. No batteries needed. Just take your fun where you find it.

ACROSS
1 Bridge results
5 Trig abbr.
8 Amerinds who played "hoop-and-poles"
14 Snake: Comb. form
15 Exclamation
16 Gamed with a club
17 Pawns, e.g.
19 With arms like a bow
20 Wheel part
21 It's caught in a pot
22 Printer's mark
23 Important abbr. in D.C.
24 Pawn, in a way
26 Separation
29 Hoop part
30 "The fair _____"
31 _____ hand (start play)
33 Spying: Abbr.
35 Patron of convicted gamblers
39 Marble game
42 _____ in the hole (is lucky)
43 Black-fin snapper
44 Take _____ (play)
45 Industry symbol
47 Dine
50 Type of talk
51 Crucial in a football game
55 Football's Parseghian
56 Starr of the football Packers
57 Beat the _____
58 Goals akin to TD's
59 Game where the ten of diamonds is big 62 Tiling for the game room?
64 Crucial in a certain game
65 Ending that changes place to person
66 D.C. group
67 PM between Churchill's terms
68 Common letter
69 Football's Graham

DOWN
1 World's most popular game
2 Spartan magistrates
3 Last line in "Cymbeline,"
   Act III, Scene III
4 Relative
5 Role or pin
6 Items in a confidence game
7 Kicked in a child's game
8 Shot in a child's game
9 Rolled in a bar game
10 Came to earth
11 Pump capacity: Abbr.
12 N.T. book
13 Old Tokyo
18 His: Fr.
22 Inning in a baseball game
25 Move down
26 "The _____": Conan Doyle
27 Winglike
28 Bridge bid
32 North Americans: Abbr.
34 Surly: Scot.
35 Type of poker
36 Youth org.
38 _____ Moines
39 Fellow
40 Will not tolerate
41 Discard in a card game: Fr.
46 Italian card game
48 Pressing
49 Monopoly-earning method
52 Moved up
53 Go-moku and Wei-ch'i, e.g.
54 Prefix for cycle or center
56 Play a logging game
59 Chinese tea
60 At the age of: Abbr.
61 Time for big games: Abbr.
62 Game cube
63 Sgt., e.g.