SENTENCE CARRIED OUT

ANIL
Perth, Australia

Many well known proverbs, quotes and expressions have entered out vocabularies in a foreshortened, hence inaccurate, form. I here set the record straight by revealing the original, complete sentences.

You can’t see the forest for the trees
Clothes make the man
The customer is always right
One foot in the grave
Nice guys finish last
Blondes have more fun
How now, brown cow
She went for him
she went for him
she went for him
A word to the wise is sufficient
Sorry, I should’ve known better
Thank God it’s Friday
Meantime...
The worm has turned
Practice what you preach
Always look on the bright side
It’ll be a cold day in hell...
If you pay peanuts you get monkeys
The world is my oyster
A man’s reach must exceed his grasp
Everyone is innocent until proved guilty
There but for the grace of God go I
Everything fell in place
The unexpected always happens
You pay your money and takes your choice
A good conscience is a continual feast
Nothing costs so much as what is given us

have all been cut down.
itchy and sweaty and stinky underneath.
tedious.
one in the frivolous, that’s my philosophy.
as a courtesy.
made of them.
who knew brui coo.     [more interspecies hanky-panky]
in a big way, so much so that... to the meeting—while he was out two-timing her! So...
with a butcher knife.
but it takes two words to dismiss a wise guy.
ways to hide my mistakes.
said Robinson Crusoe, recovering from a sudden fright.
back at Greenwich...
into a butterfly!
before a mirror.
of the mirror.
after the sun explodes earth into the near 0º K of space.
climbing all over you.     [personal experience in Bali]
I have no other pets or friends.
or there’s nothing left for anyone else!
or disliked.
to New Zealand.     [Oz joke]
of rising or holding steady.
unexpectedly.
impediment.
on credit.