for Henry Leek and The Indianapolis Children's Choir

ANGELS DID SING
for Three-Part Treble Voices with Piano or Harp Accompaniment

Text and Music by Steven Rickards

Copyright © 1997 Plymouth Music Co., Inc.
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved warmed by the beasts on this first Christmas day, cradled her king in a world so wild.

Shepherds were frightened by angels on high, Oh, telling the birth of the child close by,

Songs how love sent from above

Changes the world, for a new age is nigh.
...changes the world, for a new age is nigh.

God's Holy star provided heavenly light, guiding the heavenly light, guiding the Magi to the infant king.
Magi to the infant king.
Frankincense, myrrh, glittering gold,
Frankincense, myrrh, glittering gold,
all for the child shivering and cold fulfilling prophecies ages old...

Innocent child of mysterious birth,

God's incarnation has come to earth,

be of good cheer

Christmas is here, bring - ing hu - man - i - ty hope_ and mirth.

unis. f

Alleluia,

Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia,

bring - ing hu - man - i - ty hope_ and mirth.

Al - le - lu - ia,

bring - ing hu - man - i - ty hope_ and mirth.

Al - le - lu - ia,
Al-le-lu-ia, bringing hu-man-i-ty
Al-le-lu-ia, bringing hu-man-i-ty hope and mirth.

For Perusal Only