Solution to PROBLEMATIC PROVERBS Quiz in Previous Issue

1. The moon doesn't give a hoot when the dog barks at her.
2. God is on the side of the strongest battalions.
3. The ass cuts a sorry figure in the company of clever foxes.
4. Go down the ladder when you pick a wife; go up when you choose a friend.
5. Grey hairs are death's blossoms.
6. Silks and satins, scarlet and velvets, put out the kitchen fire.
7. There's a funny smell in a bachelor's house.
8. He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow; but a prating fool shall fall.
9. The king goes as far as he may, not as far as he would.
10. Who waiteth for dead men shoen, shall go long barefoot.

Proverb No. 10 is listed under the word SHOE in The Oxford English Dictionary (Volume IX, Page 723, Column 2, Section 2k). We have lost track of the detective novel in which the proverb and its source are quoted. Can any reader help us out?

Solution to COUNTRY, CARNIVAL Quiz in Previous Issue

1. Cathay
2. Servia
3. Hellas
4. Suisse = issues
5. Persia = praise
6. Israel = serial
7. Danzig = adzing
8. Serbia = braise
9. España
10. Mercia or Crimea
11. Rhaetia
12. Armenia
13. Scandia
14. Estonia
15. Algeria
16. Cipango
17. Sverige
18. Castile = laciest
19. Rumelia or Lemuria
20. Dongola = algodon
21. (The) Argentine = tangerine
22. Palestine = tapelines
23. Macedonia
24. Sierra Leone
25. United States = testudinates

The answer word ESPAÑA is the clue, AN APSE, spelled in reverse. SERBIA and SERVIA are two spellings of the same name. All of the countries on our list were independent nations at some time in their past. The CRIMEA, for instance, was an independent Khanate in the 15th century. LEMURIA, now submerged under the Indian Ocean, is believed once to have been the home of an advanced civilization.

Solution to “Super-Quiz No. 3” (page 152)

1. Probably incorrect. If we regard ACTER as a variant spelling of ACTOR, it is outright wrong. However, if we construe the term “word” to include an individual element of a hyphenated word, then the spelling given is correct. A ONE-ACTOR is a play consisting of one act.

2. Correct. A BASTAARD is one with mixed European, Bushman, and Hottentot blood, living in South Africa.

3. Correct. A BILLIAN is a valuable timber tree of Borneo.

4. Incorrect. There is no such term as CAIN GANG. It is either a misspelling of CHAIN GANG, or a misspelling of CAINGANG (a member of a group of people living in southern Brazil).

5. Correct. A DIAPIR is a sort of anticlinal fold in geology.

6. Correct. FORMICATION is the sensation of insects creeping on one’s skin.

7. Correct. ISOTROPE, in physics, means “having the same properties in all directions.”

8. Correct. A KARRUSEL is a device in a watch (a revolving escapement) designed to reduce position errors.

9. Correct. A LAYBOY is a device for stacking and jogging sheets of pulp or paper.

10. Incorrect. There is no such word as LAYOR. It is simply a misspelling of LAYER.

11. Correct. The MERENGUE is a Haitian ballroom dance.

12. Correct. MILWAUKIE is a town in northwestern Oregon.

13. Correct. MISPRISION is contempt, or scorn.

14. Correct. NUTATION is the act of nodding one’s head.

15. Correct. The ORIGNAL is the American moose.

16. Correct. In medieval architecture, an OYELET was a small window or loophole in a wall.

17. Correct. POTESTATES were the legal rights of Roman citizens over their descendants.

18. Correct. A QUEAN is a bold, impudent woman, or a prostitute.

19. Incorrect. There is no such word as REALTER. It is only a misspelling of REALTOR.

20. Correct. A SAILER is a vessel propelled by a sail or sails.

21. Correct. In biology, SEMATIC means “serving as a sign or warning of danger.”

22. Correct. The SHAHARA are a people in southern Arabia who do not speak Arabic.

23. Correct. SHERBERT is an alternate spelling of SHERBET, sanctioned fully by Webster’s Third Edition.

24. Correct. A SHERIF is an Arab prince, chief, or ruler.

25. Correct. A WINDROW is a row of dry leaves, swept together by the wind.
