This selection of Mr. Lindon's poems, presented for your delectation, includes poems which are composed of line-by-line palindromes, plus several which are end-to-end palindromes.

_Ha! On, on, O Noah!_

Eel-fodder, stack-cats red do flee.
Ungotten, put up net to gnu.
I tip away a wapiit,
Ewer of myt rim for ewe.

_At the Seaside_

Eva can, I see, bone no bees in a cave,
"Delia was ill!" Lisa wailed.
Eva wondered "No pier?" ere I pondered "No wave?"
Delia sits, a petite. Past I sailed.

_Enemy's End_

Lived a foeman, name of a devil!
God, a foeman, name of a dog!
Level, erased, ah, siadles are level!
Go from life, sir-rise film or fog!

_Ida Replies_

A dim or fond (as Asgard's set, so hailed)

"O tog not up, linen off,
It's a party, leg as I do!
Ida, had I fish to my name,
Soon nudies, legalists (?, Eves—"
PALINDROMIC POEMS

(Ida rapt: “Oh!”)

—“O Nimrod, animals!

If one mowed-under girl, lewder, is
Edified under it, tan-attired,
(Nude if I desired)
We’ll rig red nude women of Islam
In a dorm in—O hot Paradise vests!”

(I lag, else I’d unnoose many moths!)

“If Ida had I—O Di, sagely trap a stiff one,
Nil put on, go to Delia! Hostess—”

Drags a sad “No” from Ida.

(In the poem “Ida by the Window” in Vol. 1, No. 1, of WORD WAYS (Vol. 1, No. 1, p. 17), some quotation marks were missing—mislaid by someone along the road from the poet to the press. These quotation marks were meant to indicate that Ida spoke the first six lines, and Ben the last ten. —Ed.)

Go, Dog!

Go, dog!
Go doggo, dog!
Go! Don’t! No, dog!
Go, dote not! Stone to dog!
Go, dog!

Go far away—a war, a log!
Go, gamin, I’m alog!
Go, hymen-enemy hog!
Go, bay by a bog!
Go dip, pi-dog!
Goddam mad dog!
Go, dog!

Go, dig rock, corp-dog!
Go—drat tarl—dog!
Go, pale lap-dog!
Go droop, poor dog!
Go, dog!

Pal?
Pal-pal?
(Purr-rrh!)
Pal?

Without Rites in the Garden

Eve—No gift? Ah, what fig on Evel—
Madam, name me man, Madam!
Evie, ceremony? No, me receive!
Mad as it is it is Adam!

WORD WAYS
PALINDROMIC POEMS

Black and White

Lived as a dog—O no! God, as a devil!
Doom lives ever, it's astir, Eve's evil mood.
Live, O Devil, revel ever, live, do evil!
(Do, O God, no evil deed, live on, do good!)

Slap Ere We're Pals

Eye rare Di, Carol, Flora—cider are ye!
Rae, Di saw Tim ape Pam? It was I, dear!
Em, 'tis Ivor, afar—O visit me
Ere Hera, Enid and Nadine are here!

Draw, O Howard!

Draw, O hot moody sword girdler-on!
Draw, or foot it! O negate wit! On!
Not I—wet age—not I! Too Forward!
No red-rig drowsy doom to Howard!

Into the Unknown

Rise, cap!
Sniff oxygen . . .
Do orbits alter?
Costa, rise!
No g—
Gyrator still upon
Sun, every gyre
Venus
No pull
It's rotary—
G gone, sir
At secret last I brood
Neg. yx . . .
Off in space, sir!

Noah in Trouble-spot

Slam in a den
Mad dogs I do
O gnus!
O rats!
O deer!
Feral lions
(No ill)
Are freed
O Star!
O Sun!
Good is God!
(Damned animals!)
