1 te-te-ro-ro-ma-ma-nu-nu-da-da-te-te-la-la-te-te

To admire the logological beauty, the original latin sentence was "Te tero, Roma, manu nuda, date tela, latete", meaning "It is you I destroy, Rome, with bare hands, give up weapons, hide yourself".

2 The German word "Schachecho" (the name of a chess magazine) meaning "Echo of chess" has the construction "-ch-ch-ch-", or "S-cha-che-cho".

3 The country Bahrein in Dutch divides into "Bah-rein", meaning "dirty-clean".

4 "2 frs (c'est bien dormir) 16", or "C'est bien dormir entre duex françaises", meaning "It is nice to sleep between two french girls".

5 "To vote" is the opposite of "to veto".
