ON behalf of the whole Society, the Board of Directors of the Society of Hindu-Christian Studies formally expresses its gratitude to Fr. Anand Amaladass for his tireless work as founder of the Satya Nilayam Research Institute for Philosophy and Sanskrit in Chennai, for his scholarly oeuvre of numerous articles and over 20 books and edited collections, and his pastoral work on behalf of Hindu-Christian understanding. The Society recognises its particular debt for Fr. Amaladass' service as co-editor of the Bulletin and then the Journal of Hindu-Christian Studies from 1988 to 2007. The Society, and so many of its members, offers its profound thanks for such a stirring example of leadership and service in the field.
