EDITORIAL POLICY

The Journal of Hindu-Christian Studies is an annual scholarly journal published jointly at the University of Notre Dame and at the Institute of Philosophy and Culture, Madras, India. It is the official publication of the Society for Hindu-Christian Studies.

The aim of the Journal is to create a worldwide forum for the presentation of Hindu-Christian scholarly studies, book reviews, and news of past and upcoming events. Materials selected for publication will be balanced between historical research and contemporary practice and, where possible, will employ analytical and theoretical analysis set within the context of our shared contemporary experience. Contributions are invited and may be addressed to either the Editor. Articles of roughly 4000 words are preferred, though occasionally longer pieces will be published. Send manuscript in paper form as well as on diskette. A style sheet is available on request. The Journal adopts a policy of non-gender-specific language where applicable. All articles are subject to review before acceptance and may be edited in the course of publication.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

An annual subscription is included with membership in the Society for Hindu-Christian Studies. For membership rates see www.hcstudies.org/mem.html. Subscriptions to the journal (digital only/digital + print) are $25/$35 for non-Indian institutions; free/$20 for Indian institutions; $10/20 for individuals outside of India; and free/$15 for individuals in India. Single copies of back issues are $15. No other currencies can be accepted. To subscribe, visit www.hcstudies.org. The Journal is indexed in the ATLA Religion Database, published by the American Theological Library Association.
