OLD DAN TUCKER
*Three-Part Treble Voices with Keyboard, Percussion and Flute

Indiana Folk Song
Arranged by Shirley W. McRae

* This piece can also be either two-part or unison.
Get out of the way of old Dan Tucker.
Get out of the way of Old Dan Tucker.

He's too late to get his supper.
Supper's over and breakfast's cooking.

Old Dan Tucker stands a looking.
I came to town the other night, I heard a noise and seed a sight.

Temple Blocks

Oh, my Lord! Old Dan Tucker has come to town!

Folks were all a-running around, Old Dan Tucker has come to town!
Oh my Lord! I heard a noise and seed a sight.
I came to town the other night, I heard a noise and seed a sight.

Oh my Lord! Old Dan Tuck-er has come to town. Get Folks were all a-run-ning a-round, Old Dan Tuck-er has come to town. Get Folks were all a-run-ning a-round, cry-ing "Old Dan Tuck-er's come to town." Get out of the way of Old Dan Tucker. He's too late to get his supper.

Supper's eaten and the dishes washed. Nothing left but a piece of squash.
Old Dan Tucker went down in town, Swing-ing the lad-ies all a-round... First to the right and then to the left. And then to the one he loved the best._ Get
Get out! Old Dan Tucker.

Get out!

out of the way of Old Dan Tucker, get out of the way of

Tambourine

Temple Blocks
Get out! Old Dan!
He's too late to get his supper.

Tambourine and temple blocks

Siap Patschen

Old Dan Tucker!

Old Dan Tucker!