The Society for Hindu-Christian Studies

THE Society, founded in November 1994, is dedicated to the study of Hinduism and Christianity and their interrelationship. It seeks to create a forum for the presentation of historical research and studies of contemporary practice, for the fostering of dialogue and interreligious conversation, carried forward in a spirit of openness, respect, and true inquiry. Its scope includes issues related to religious practice, spirituality, and education.

Membership includes a subscription to the Society's Journal of Hindu-Christian Studies, which is published annually. Annual dues for membership plus a digital journal subscription are US $30 annually ($15 for individuals located in India; $75 for a three-year membership). Annual dues for membership plus a digital and print journal subscription are $40 annually ($20 for individuals located in India; $100 for a three-year membership). Currencies other than U.S. dollars cannot be accepted. Go to www.hcstudies.org to join.

Annual meetings of the Society are held in conjunction with the American Academy of Religion annual meetings. For more information contact the Society's Secretary, Chad Bauman (cbauman@butler.edu).
