

AN ALL-VOWEL CROSSWORD

DARRYL FRANCIS
Hounslow, Middlesex, England

In nearly all crosswords that appear in print, there is usually no relationship between the constituent words of the completed crossword diagram. To show that this need not be so, and to give you something to do for a couple of hours or so, we have devised a crossword where all of the answer words are spelled using vowels -- the letters A, E, I, O, U and Y. Would you care to try and solve our crossword?

The clues are given below. All the definitions and answers have been taken from major dictionaries. Most of the words emanate from the Second and Third Editions of Webster's New International, though there is a smattering of words from Webster's First Edition, the Oxford English Dictionary, and Funk and Wagnalls New Standard Dictionary.
