

Walter Shedlofsky (St. Louis MO) Nov 22 1917 – Mar 11 1991
Dave Silverman (West Los Angeles CA) Jun 30 1929 – Feb 1978
William Sunners (Brooklyn NY) Aug 11 1902 – May 10 1988
Bill Webster (Carefree AZ) May 8 1921 – Sep 24 2001

PEOPLE REMEMBERED IN THE LANGUAGE

LEONARD R. N. ASHLEY
Brooklyn, New York

Some individuals have made a name for themselves and got into the dictionary, their names (usually surnames) having become words. How many of these notables can you recognize?

- (1) Ostracize
- (2) Wax protectively
- (3) Cause to spring into action
- (4) Add enhancing pages to a book
- (5) To fiddle with the boundaries of election districts
- (6) Traitor in an enemy's political service
- (7) Transposed letters or sounds
- (8) Gaudy but worthless
- (9) No choice at all
- (10) Best known creation of a French physicist, scenery painter, bureaucrat, etc.
- (11) A guide to chief points of tourist interest
- (12) A sauce invented by a steward of Louis XIV
- (13) A crane
- (14) Perfection in acting
- (15) A brief and niggardly political career gave his name to a kind of portrait
- (16) A too inquisitive person
- (17) A demanding disciplinarian
- (18) A light traveling bag
- (19) A snack of bread and filling
- (20) A pointed beard