A MAGIC TOUR

Jeremiah Farrell

If you followed instructions, you will always end in FORT WORTH.

The map is an adaptation of a new effect by Jim Steinmeyer from his third Impuzzlement booklet “Subsequent Impuzzibilities” from Hahne, www.jimsteinmeyer.com. You always will spend the night in GULFPORT.

The die part of the magic is an adaptation of the effect in “Magic Spells” from the February 2010 Word Ways. You may chose to count the number rolled on the die instead of spelling it.
