Letter banks

A letter bank is a type of puzzle where all the letters of one word (the "bank") can be used as many times as desired (a minimum of once each) to make a new word or phrase. For example, IMPS is a bank of MISSISSIPPI, and CYNDI LAUPER is a letter bank of PERPENDICULARLY.

The term letter bank was coined by Will Shortz at the 1980 convention of the National Puzzlers League. This puzzle type is the basis for the word game Alpha Blitz.

Quasimodo rings his bells
 Without regard for how he smells.
 He heads each day from bed to tower,
 Never stopping for a shower.
 He never performs a single EIGHT
 Before a sweaty day of GREAT.

This five-note segment of a scale is a piece of cake for J. J. Kale, but Madonna sings it would be wise
 if father would cease to sermonize.
