I have been asked to write a ballad about a Laud of the Manna, Col. P. Riley of Great Holkham. As my spelling is sometimes a bit shaky, I ran my composition through the spelling check on the word processor; fortunately the programme did not discover any mistakes:

Weir Kernel Fillip Wryly,
Hears Misses Are, inn toe.
Baste inn thee Hokum airier –
Warred Counsellor, ewe no.

Jay Pea – caught cessions – pole tacks –
Yew sea hour chaws aunt phew.
Weir "Fill" two awl hour felloes.
Thee surfs trussed "Filly", to.

Hour four-bares maid there cache, weir tolled,
Wen Quean An rained inn piece,
Benighting Hue Fits-Wryly –
Heap one sum wore inn Grease.

Hour place, Grate Hokum Manner,
Ewe retch sume whey aweigh
Buy Beaches Would, witch farther soled.
Yawl bee hour guessed, eye prey?

Pleas mete hour sun – hears Simian;
Watts maw, meat deer Aren’t Knell.
Yore awl four tee? Coax? Laager? Ail?

Wye, wen yew cume too Hokum
Wheel chute – burred, heart ore hair;
Awe, tyred bye summary whether,
Lays inn thee barmy heir.

Yule fined fore hansom stories,
Gneiss lorn, flours, likened waul;
Weave gaitz, muse, mote, starez, bawl rheum,
Hie sealing inn thee Haul.

Theirs licker inn thee sellers;
Whine wight ore read wee whored.
Throw weak daze, Sundaes, fate daze
Wee lowed thee waited bored.
Hour mayors, aye wood ashore ewe,
Gnow sloe gnaw peeky bee.
Jew sale? Weed yews hour birth inn
Grate-Bunkum-buy-thee-See.
Hour whirled kneads tacked, thyme, patients;
Sew flea thee currant seen.
Bee lacks. Eye sees yaw chants too wrest,
Two "pores" (know, "paws" aye mien).
