This handwriting practice sheet is enclosed in a black rectangular border. At the top, the word "manuscripts" is written in a cursive font. The main content is organized into several rows:

- Row 1: A series of five downward-pointing triangles, each with a horizontal line above it, indicating the starting point for a downward stroke.
- Row 2: A series of five upward-pointing triangles, each with a horizontal line below it, indicating the starting point for an upward stroke.
- Row 3: A series of five downward-pointing triangles, each with a horizontal line above it, indicating the starting point for a downward stroke.
- Row 4: A series of five downward-pointing triangles, each with a horizontal line above it, indicating the starting point for a downward stroke.
- Row 5: Five cursive "69" pairs. Each pair consists of a "6" with a downward arrow and a "9" with an upward arrow, showing the stroke order.
- Row 6: Five cursive "69" pairs, identical to the previous row.
- Row 7: Five musical notes on a staff. Each note has a stem with a downward arrow, indicating the stroke order for writing the note.
- Row 8: Five musical notes on a staff, identical to the previous row.
- Row 9: Five musical notes on a staff, identical to the previous rows.
- Row 10: A solid black horizontal bar.
- Row 11: A solid black horizontal bar.
