THIS RUGGED WORLD

SIR JEREMY MORSE

London, England

Though dogged by fate, I make my dogged way,
And keep rugged up against this rugged world.
I learned that lesson from a learned man
Who helped an aged crone aged eighty-two
When children ragged her for her ragged clothes.
She crooked her crooked fingers round his arm,
And jagged his jacket with her jagged nails.
She blessed her blessed rescuer, but he
Silently cursed his cursed courtesy.
