

THE PROPER NAME IN THE PROPER USE

LEONARD R.N. ASHLEY
Brooklyn, New York

You don't have to be a Sherlock to fill in most of the blanks here, but a few of the names in these slang expressions are somewhat less common than others and may give you some trouble. If you get them all, you're an Einstein. Answers are found in Answers and Solutions at the end of this issue.

1. Let ----- do it
2. Rob ----- to pay -----
3. My name is -----
4. ----- doesn't live here anymore
5. Will you love me in ----- as you did in -----?
6. Don't be a ----- [be taken advantage of]
7. Keep hoping but don't be a -----
8. Bums wind up on -----
9. A free pass is an -----
10. To work hard (especially as a uniformed cop) is to do a -----
11. A stupid woman is a Dumb -----
12. About the Irish they tell ----- and ----- jokes
13. A Confederate $100 bill was a -----
14. A hunchback is a -----
15. A prude (of either sex) is a nice -----
16. Three jacks in poker are -----, ----- and -----
17. A person who was not hip was an -----
18. An auctioneer's accomplice raising bids is a -----
19. A highly virile man is called -----
20. A female square is -----
21. The climax line of a play is an -----
22. An overseer or a stupid lad is an -----
23. A British stooge is a -----
24. An overcoat is a -----
25. A life jacket is a -----