THE PEOPLE IN SLANGUAGE

LEONARD R. N. ASHLEY
Brooklyn, New York

Long before Elijah McCoy invented the lubricating device which gave us the expression the real McCoy, long before Kilroy was dead, names crept into common speech and formed an interesting aspect of slang. How many of the following catch phrases, all containing names, can you explain? What do people mean when they say these?

1. Not tonight, Josephine
2. My name is Walker
3. I've been to see Captain Bates
4. After you, Alphonse
5. Bob's your uncle
6. Absolutely, Mr. Gallagher (Positively, Mr. Sheen)
7. When Paddy Doyle gets paid...
8. You're not Robinson Crusoe
9. Ned Kelly was hanged for less
10. I don't see the Joe Miller of it
11. Old Newton got him
12. Queer as Dick's hatband
13. In like Flynn
14. Don't make a Judy (Fitzsimmons) of yourself
15. Even Blind Freddie can see that
16. Do as (David) Garrick did
17. It's all Sir Garnet
18. I would that I had Kemp's shoes to throw after you
19. He doesn't know if he's Arthur or Martha
20. Let 'er go, Gallagher!
21. Alderman Lushington is concerned
22. Dr. Livingstone, I presume
23. Like MacArthur (I shall return)
24. Too short for Richard
25. Who do you think I am, Rockefeller?
26. Queen Anne's dead
27. Murphy's Law
28. Up goes M'Ginty's goat
29. Elementary, my dear Watson
30. Do a Brody
31. Slip him a Mickey Finn
32. Do a Garbo
33. Enter like Loretta Young
34. I'm Simpson, not Samson

KICKSHA

DAVID MORICE
Iowa City, Iowa

Readers are encouraged to solve the maze and send in their solutions

Daedalus's Po
d

Most mazes are written ones.

When you've finished

You open L
As quickly as possible
The shadow
And then you...

1. You open the maze
2. As quickly as possible
3. The shadow
4. And then you...
5. Like cobwebs
6. The words
7. That hide the end
8. You've reached the end
9. And step through
10. To nowhere
11. The Minotaur
12. And watch
13. You enter the maze
14. The Minotaur
15. You know
16. Says, "Well...
17. This is my
18. And place
19. As intricately
20. Your image
21. He slowly
22. And shake...