

Left in the Attic

Elizabeth Huggins

My should have said sit in the attic;
leave me alones pile
in the corner by the window;
a trunk full of i love yous
hide behind the door;
whys hang from the rafters
and cover the wall.

To be honest
I haven't slept in years.