A TRIBUTE TO "ARMAND T. RINGER"
1914 - 2010

Jeremiah Farrell
A TRIBUTE TO "ARMAND T. RINGER"
1914-2010

Jeremiah Farrell

ACROSS

1 Free ____, always a mystery to the religious Armand
2 Mountains dividing continents
3 Classic Ok. Peak
4 ____ Alto
5 Soy bean curd
6 Wales who, like Armand, loved magic
7 Philosophy major Armand, also a logician, knew about inferences like "which came first?". This puzzle amazingly knows the answer, ____
10 Author Armand admired this about Alice and Dorothy 11 Armand sometimes wrote about this in his Scientific American column
12 Bore
13 Thack shee
14 Diagram type often used by Armand to study games
15 Web ____
16 How often Armand annotated books by G. K. Chesterton
17 Sissy
18 Acronym that in modern physics represents a concept that explains all. Armand once wrote "the Big Bang was a laboratory experiment, that ____ refers to the big toe of a hyperphysicist who used her ____ to press the button."
19 Expression of angst
20 Primarily used as a poet, "Armand T. Ringer" was the favorite pseudonym of this polymath 21 What Armand regarded the paranormal as 22 Old Tokyo capital
23 Arrests
24 Island greeting
25 Eye parts
26 Protection
27 Learning
28 Woman's undergarment
29 Raise
30 Armand wrote about the Reuleaux Triangle in which this is constant no matter the direction of measurement
31 Toss a coin, turn it over as many times as you wish, and note what is on top. Magician Armand would know ____
32 Register
33 Greek Cupid
34 Earth goddess, mother of Thor
35 Rider needs
36 Last year's word?
37 Spotted

DOWN

1 FDR program
2 Stewart was quick for a time Armand's "Mathematical Games" column
3 Law deg.
4 Word with car or odd
5 Six-sided area on a map
6 Armand's work on symetry always included this operation
7 Armand, a "masstror" as word play knew what the collection MRS. MAO, MET, SOT, TAR, OER, SEA, was 8 British brightness
9 Herdness scale
10 Ace and they are playing a take-away game using three stacks of coins of size one, two and three. They alternate with Ace going first and Ace must take exactly one coin away. They play next and can take 1, 2 or 3 coins from any single stack. Game expert Armand predicts that with perfect play
11 Lion or woman suffix?
12 Common movie animal?
13 Name sometimes associated with Lee?
14 Common printers or computers: abbr.
15 As a youth, Armand cherished an autograph of this inventor (monograph)
16 Auto additive: abbr.
17 Tremulous effect
18 Air mixer
19 Geometer Armand knew this solid was self-dual 20 Ancestry
21 Sour
22 Word with bug or room
23 Ado
24 Small amount
25 Experts
26 Spanish arm
27 A basic operation needed to understand the numerology of Armand's "Friend" Dr. Marx
28 Computer name used by Armand's friend Arthur C. Clark. Armand also wrote science fiction.
29 Former JFK visitor
30 Name given to 11 pharaohs
31 Sports org. with over 800 members
32 History pat
33 Woes
35 Latin "to be"
36 "... and the amp
37 "Positively not prime!" said Armand
38 Spoon bender spoiled by skeptical Armand
39 Half a laugh?
40 Station terminus?
41 Dec end?
42 Certain male?