- Rev. Spooner Recites Mary Had a Little Lamb

Larry had a middle ram,
F' its lease was snide as woe.
And weavery air that wary meant the wham lost, goer to show.
It hollowed far to duel one ski,
whiz itch a rule the gits.
It chide the milled wren pilaf and lay suit tea a scam at rule.

(Was he senile or drunk when he spoke this nonsense? Or am I just dense and need you to salvage his reputation by explaining it? Was he a smart feller or the opposite?)

- A NON POEM—an Anagram/Charade Dialogue

A NON

Onan: A non? An on?

Nona: An on, anon!

Onan: 'Anon' = a non?

Nona: 'Anon' = Anno n! [≈ No, a nano-]. — Anon.

Denouement hint: Onan only has a nano-chance to score. So, a non poem.

Leopards are not usually spotted. On safaris.

In tennis if the ball is hit both long and wide is it a double fault? Or just an out and out out?

Your God is really slow! 14 billion years to create man? Heck, humans can do it in nine months!
Or basically in nine seconds.
