

"Nutritious food should be an expectation, not a luxury."

– Rep. André Carson

1 in 5 people live in an area without readily available access to fresh food in Indianapolis. It's time to change that.

Information for the pamphlet comes from: (Bartner 2019), (Dixon 2021), (Edwards 2020), (Powell 2021), ("Press" 2020), (Sheridan 2021).

Resources to combat food apartheid in Indy

Contact your Representatives

Scan here to find your legislator

Contact Governor Holcomb

Mayor Hogsett

Indianapolis City Council

317.327.4242 or

City-County.Council@indy.gov

What to push for:

- Better public transport & support of public transport
- Support of Rep. Carson's Bill: H.R. 8531-Food Deserts Act of 2020
- Deny Senate Bill 141-would cut funds for IndyGo
- City grants for food programs
- Support of SNAP benefits
- To address food deserts in their legislation & votes

Organizations to volunteer with/ donate to

Indy Food Council
indyfoodcouncil.org

Flanner House
flannerhouse.org

Indy Hunger Network
indyhunger.org

Growing Places Indy
growingplaceindy.org

Kheprw Institute
kheprw.org

Indiana Black Farmers Co-op
indianablackfarmers.com