The Charter of this Institution authorizes its Board of Directors to organize Colleges for Literature and Science, Law, Medicine, and a Normal School. The following Departments exhibit the Course of Study required for Graduation in the College of Literature and Science, and Law. Additional departments will be organized as the exigencies of the Institution may demand.

I. — DEPARTMENT OF ETHICS AND GREEK.

Prof. A. R. Benton, President.

To this Department belong the Evidences of Revealed Religion and its Analogy to Nature, Moral Philosophy and Natural Theology.

For the present, Logic, Rhetoric, Intellectual Science, and Political Economy will be taught in this department.

The Charter of the Institution requires the Bible to be taught as a Class-Book, but forbids the inculcation of sectarian or partizan dogmas; and to attain this end, each Student will be required to attend a Bible Class every Monday morning.

In Greek are read Xenophon's Anabasis and Memorabilia, Herodotus, Plato, Homer's Iliad, and Sophocles. Thucydides and Demosthenes are elective. Hebrew is also taught to those desiring it.

II. — MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT.

Prof. G. W. Hoss, A. M.

The Studies in this Department are Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Plane and Spherical, Surveying, Conic Sections, Mechanics, Calculus and Astronomy.

Special instructions will be secured to any who may pursue the subject of Surveying with a practical object in view. Analytical Geometry may, at the option of the Class, be substituted for Surveying and Conic Sections, and the Elements of Engineering for Calculus. Mathematical Instruments—Planetarium, Plane Compass, Solar Compass, and Engineer's Theodolite.

III.—DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL SCIENCE.

Prof. R. T. Brown, A. M., M. D.

This Department embraces the study of Chemistry, Natural Philosophy, Physiology, Botany, Meteorology, Zoology, and Geology. The Text Books in this Department will be illustrated by Experiments, Charts, and Diagrams, and the whole course will be accompanied by lectures and full expositions of the principles taught.

In the last term of the year, a Course of Lectures will be delivered on Chemistry in its application to Agriculture and the Mechanical Arts.

IV.—DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES AND LATIN.

Prof. S. K. Hoshour, A. M.

In this Department the German and French Languages are practically and available taught. In both languages the most approved Text Books are used—such as Woodbury's Method in the German—his successive readers, and in order to familiarize the Student with the business part of the language, a weekly German Newspaper is, for a time, introduced and carefully studied.

In the French, Pasquelette's Course is adopted, and at a suitable stage of the Student's progress, a French Journal is also made a subject of study. The whole course for each language comprises one year and two-thirds. Classes will be formed only at the opening of each College year.

In Latin are read Caesar, Virgil, Cicero's Orations, Horace, Livy, Cicero's Amicitia and Disputations, Tacitus, and Plautus.

V.—NORMAL INSTRUCTION.

Prof. G. W. Hoss, A. M.

A class will be taught in this Department throughout the year. The exercises will consist of Drills in the Modes of Teaching the branches a common school education, accompanied by Lectures on the principles and methods of Organizing, Grading, and Managing Schools.

No extra charge in this Department to members who are Students in other Departments of the Institution.

VI.—ENGLISH AND PREPAREDARY DEPARTMENT.

Prof. A. C. SHORTRIDGE.

In the English Department, the principal studies are Spelling, Reading, Penmanship, Mental and Written Arithmetic, Descriptive and Physical Geography, Rhetoric, History, English Grammar and Composition.

In the Preparatory Department, the course comprises the Elements of Algebra, Latin and Greek.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ADMISSION.

Students from other Colleges will be required to present certificates of honorable dismissal and scholarship, and if satisfactory, will be admitted to their classes without examination; but all others will be examined before classification.

EXAMINATIONS.

There will be an examination at the close of the first and second terms, before the Faculty, and a public Examination at the close of the Collegiate year. Students who are candidates for graduation will be examined at the commencement of their graduation year, in the studies of the English Department.

LIBRARY.

The Institution is furnished with a small Library, to which, it is hoped, large accessions will soon be made, by purchase, and by donations from friends.

SOCIETIES.

In connection with the Institution are three Literary Societies—the Mathe­sian, Pythonian, and Sigournean; also a Religious one—the Threskomathian, which are valuable auxiliaries to the Institution. Donations of books to any of these Societies will be gratefully received.

QUARTERLY REPORTS.

A Register is kept of the daily attendance, progress, and deportment of each Student, a synopsis of which is furnished, at the close of each term, to the parent or guardian.
CABINET AND APPARATUS.

The Cabinet of the Institution, chiefly the bequest of the late Dr. Van Tuyll, of Dayton, Ohio, is especially valuable.

The Institution also possesses a well selected Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, as a nucleus for further acquisition. Donations to either will be gratefully received.

LOCATION.

The University Building is situated one mile and a half north-east of the center of the City in a Campus of twenty-five acres, covered with primitive forest trees. Its location secures the advantage of both city and country.

BOARDING.

Boarding is easily obtained in good families, at rates from two dollars and fifty cents to three dollars per week. Students can board themselves at much lower rates.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

Students are required to attend public worship once, at least, every Sabbath, and the Sabbath Lectures in the University Hall.

RHETORICAL EXERCISES.

Exercises in Declamation and Composition are required of every Student who is not a member of one of the Societies.

CALENDAR.

The College year is divided into three terms.
First Term—Commences Wednesday, September 16th, and closes December 24th—fourteen weeks.
Second Term—Commences January 4th, 1864, and closes April 1st—thirteen weeks.
Third Term—Commences April 4th, and closes July 1st—thirteen weeks.

DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred on all those who complete the regular College Course.

The degree of Bachelor of Science will be conferred on students who complete the Scientific Course.

Female students, on completion of the Female Collegiate Course, will receive the Scientific Baccalaureate degree; and on completion of the College Course, will receive the full Baccalaureate degree.
The degree of Master of Arts will be conferred on regular Graduates of three years' standing, who shall have sustained, in the mean time, a good moral character, and have been engaged in professional, literary, or scientific pursuits. If a Diploma is given, the fee is five dollars.

LAW SCHOOL
OF THE
NORTH-WESTERN CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY.

This Department is now under the care of Samuel E. Perkins, L. L. D., and David McDonald, L. L. D. Its object is to furnish young gentlemen with such a course of instruction as thoroughly to prepare them for entering successfully upon the practice of the law.

The mode of instruction will be daily lectures by both Professors, and recitations on the text books, and a weekly Moot Court, together with such other exercises as may be deemed useful to the students.

The full course of instruction will embrace two annual sessions of four months each.

Students will be divided into two classes, the Junior and the Senior. And as a general rule students will be expected to complete a full course before they are entitled to diplomas. But this rule will, in the discretion of the Law Faculty, be relaxed in favor of those who, before entering the Institution, shall have made such proficiency in the study of the law as to entitle them to enter, in the first instance, in the Senior Class.

THE TEXT BOOKS OF THE JUNIOR CLASS WILL BE
Blackstone’s Commentaries,
Kent’s Commentaries,
Stephens on Pleading,
Perkin’s Practice.

THE TEXT BOOKS OF THE SENIOR CLASS WILL BE
Kent’s Commentaries,
Story on Equity Jurisprudence,
Smith’s Commercial Law,
Parsons on Contracts,
Greenleaf’s Evidence,
Wharton’s Criminal Law.
These books can all be purchased in Indianapolis. Students must furnish their own text books. But they will have access to the large and valuable collection of law books in the State Library.

The next session will commence on the first Monday of December, and close about the first of April.

The terms of tuition will be $50.00, payable in advance. A moderate graduation fee will be charged by the University.

Students are urged to be present on the first day of the session.

OVID BUTLER,

Pres't Board of Trustees N. W. C. University.
