The Hindu-Christian Studies Bulletin is a scholarly journal published jointly at the Centre for Studies in Religion and Society at the University of Victoria, and at the Institute of Philosophy and Culture, Madras, India. The annual issues will present articles, book reviews, viewpoint essays and news items on Hinduism and Christianity and their interrelationship based upon historical materials and contemporary experience.

Materials selected for publication will be balanced between historical research and contemporary practice, and, where possible, should employ analytical and theoretical analysis set within the context of our shared human experience. The aim of the journal is to create a world-wide forum for the presentation of Hindu-Christian scholarly studies, book reviews and news of past and upcoming events. Contributors are invited for the next issue and should be addressed to either to the Editor or Co-Editor. All articles are subject to review before acceptance and may receive editorial modifications in the course of publication.
