SOCIETY FOR HINDU-CHRISTIAN STUDIES

THE Society, founded in November 1994, is dedicated to the study of Hinduism and Christianity and their interrelationship. It seeks to create a forum for the presentation of historical research and studies of contemporary practice, for the fostering of dialogue and interreligious conversation, carried forward in a spirit of openness, respect, and true inquiry. Its scope includes issues related to religious practice, spirituality, and education.

Membership includes a subscription to the Society’s journal, Hindu-Christian Studies Bulletin, which is published once a year. Membership annual dues are US dollars $31; students: US dollars $15; special 3-year rate: US dollars $75. (No other currencies can be accepted.)

Annual meetings of the Society are held in conjunction with the American Academy of Religion annual meetings. For information contact: Rachel McDermott, rmcdermo@barnard.edu
