SLANG AROUND THE HOUSE

LEONARD R. N. ASHLEY
Brooklyn, New York

It's as safe as houses (perfectly certain) that you know the meaning of playhouse and opera house, jailhouse and outhouse, greenhouse and whorehouse, and maybe there's even someone in the house who can list such varieties of doss house as the scratch house and the flea house. But can you define each of these listed below? Some are easy -- and for others you will have to look up the definitions freely given, on the house, in Answers and Solutions at the end of this issue.

1. nut house
2. bandhouse
3. flophouse
4. station house
5. fun house
6. full house
7. cat house
8. doghouse
9. big house
10. sporting house
11. gas house
12. crumb house
13. roundhouse
14. monkey house
15. powerhouse
16. juke house
17. lighthouse
18. glasshouse
19. paper house
20. grind house
21. hash house
22. white house
23. bughouse
24. henhouse
25. funny house

HOWARD
Sweet Hon

I have some of compositions which (un) occurred to me logical into poem into one trival form. As ab initio, ready visit the point of view:

In composition, palindromes are relative to how and how many. In the case of several hundred theoretical absolute sense of thousands of words, palindromes have been utilized as a device to an effective appeal. Principle is central self vary in the comparable telling:

In the which the meaning with story real have read of this type, the indefinable utilized that can