WITWITs – Part 1

STEVE KAHAN
Hollis Hills, New York

A WITWIT is merely an acronym for “Where In The Word Is That?,” an orthographic challenge that I introduced in May I Have A Word With You?. In the first of this seven part series, two dozen letter sequences have been extracted, without interruption, from either the beginning, middle, or end of a word. Reinserting each into its proper position at the rate of one per hour, you’ll identify the sources of all of these sequences in a single day. Moreover, you’ll certainly have the last laugh and avoid a fracas provided you recognize that HAHA came from BROUHAHA!
