THE DOWNFALL OF MAURICE FAVERSHAM by Walter Shedlofsky

Coroner Michael Hobbs: Court is reconvened.

Meredith Markworthy: I have lettered the solution on this blackboard. I have followed the instructions as indicated in the note, and as you initially can see, Sir Maurice Faversham contrived his own death.

Sir Maurice lies dead with deep stoved in pate.
Truth's message initial. Life was not great.
Evil thoughts connived, earnest skill contrived.
Please weirdly repeat or downfall will not state.
