WHAT'S IN A PHRASE?

We all use phrases without a second thought or glance. Many of these word liaisons, however, are hosts to a world of hidden words and hidden letter patterns. Some of these are now about to be exposed. The phrases under scrutiny here are mostly, but not exclusively, 2-word affairs. Unreferenced phrases can be found in the Oxford English Dictionary, Second Edition, including the text. Non-OED references are: _bt_ Bloomsbury Thesaurus, 1993, _Cham_ Chambers Dictionary, _cpf_ Chambers Phrase File by Roger Prebble, 1993, _Long_ Longman's Dictionary, _LonV_ Language On Vacation by Dmitri Borgmann, 1965, _Web2_ Webster's Second Edition, _WW_ Word Ways.

Selected examples are offered for a range of categories. The following are not included: palindromic phrases (PULL UP), tautonymic phrases (COME COME) and Miami phrases (INK IN). Also excluded are hyphenated ‘phrases’.

STRADDLES

Words, or significant letter patterns, are to be found straddling many 2-word phrases. Priority, but not exclusivity, is given here to those straddles in which at least 2 letters come from each of the 2 words (in MASS HYSTERIA only one letter of SHYSTER occurs in the first word). The straddles should not embrace either the first letter of the first word or the last letter of the second word. In letter pattern straddles (tautonymic etc.) the straddle may, or may not, be a word in its own right.

WORD STRADDLES

The straddles in FIRE BUSH (oed txt) and TELEPHONE MESSAGE will be familiar to the readers of Word Ways.

These 5- and 6-letter straddles are names: CORNEAL LENS (Cham), TOTAL THEATRE, RADIANT HEAT, ARABIAN CAMEL, GOLDEN CHAIN (Dench is a surname), BODY LANGUAGE, FORTIFIED WINE, MIDDLE NAME, HUMAN DYNAMO, PUERPERAL FEVER

Other 6-letter straddles: REPEAT ONESELF (Cham), MEDICINE MAN, MADE HISTORY, GOLDEN HAMPSTER (Denham is in UK), KNEE BREECHES (eebree = eyebrow), FIRE WARDEN, PHRASAL VERB, COUSIN GERMAN, LOST ONESELF (cpf), QUARTER GALLERY, LEVEL CROSSING

7- and 8-letter straddles: OPERA SINGER, FOREST RANGE

Some straddles are pertinent to the phrase of which they form a part:

CHRISTIAN NAME, CENTRE FORWARD (football), REGENT STREET in London provides all mod cons., THE REDEEMER is here.

By allowing the straddle to incorporate just one letter from one of the words, instead of at least two, we encounter the opposite FLEA PIT and discover that CAPITAL LETTERS are tall. On the other hand, the straddle in GROWTH INDUSTRY appears to contradict the phrase.

Word straddles can also be found in 3-word phrases if the second word is included in the straddle: JUST A TICK (cpf), EAU DE NIL (Cham), THANKS A MILLION; and what the exchange rate has done - RISEN TEN CENTS (coined).
TAUTONYMIC STRADDLES

Here is an A-Z of 6-letter tautonymic straddles:

Some phrases offer a choice of 6-letter tautonymic straddles:
FIND INDISPENSABLE (above*) has the two tautonymic straddles INDIND and NDINDI.

8-letter tautonymic straddles:

In this sentence, adjacent words have 4-letter tautonymic straddles:
WHILE LES ESCAPED, EDWIN INSPECTED EDWINA'S ASSIGNMENT.

By including the second word of this 3-word phrase in the straddle, BEAT A TATTOO (bt) exhibits the ATATAT triple tautonymic straddle and also the palindromic straddle ATATA.

LADDER STRADDLES

These 9-letter ladder straddles follow one of nine ladder patterns. Each trigram (3-letter group) differs from its trigram neighbour(s) by a single letter (see Ladder Words WW2002279). The significance of the asterisks is explained under Miami Straddles below.

123423523 AVENGING ANGEL* (bt), NUCLEAR WARFARE*
123423453 INTEGRAL CALCULUS, SCARLET LETTER
123423425 HARBOR PORPOISE, NONSENSE NAME*

123124154 SECULAR VARIATION*. A 3-letter phrase: CREATE A SENSATION
123124125 DRINKING INNE*, PRINTING INDUSTRY*, THE SHEPHERDS*
A phrase may incorporate 2 different ladder patterns. OPEN SENTENCE* embodies the 2 extreme patterns 123423523 in which the first letter of each trigram changes (OPEN SENTENCE), and 123124125 in which the last letter of each trigram changes (OPEN SENTENCE).

MIAMI STRADDLES

There even exists a Miami Miami straddle in the shape of THALASSAEMIA MINOR (a carrier state of the disease Thalassaemia).

Miami straddles are also to be found in phrases exhibiting other types of straddle:

All the 6-letter Tautonymic Straddles listed above also carry 2 different Miami straddles (eg. SURVIVAL VALUE + SURVIVAL VALUE). In Ladder Straddles above, most of the phrases incorporate a Miami straddle *; some incorporate 2 different Miami straddles **.

A few phrases embody alphabetically consecutive letter straddles:

SPEOVELIA AAA (a bug - WW95171), FREE ENERGY (Web2), LEE ENFIELD, CLIFF FACE (Web2), EGG GLASS (Web2), PLIMSSOLL LINE, CUCKOO ORCHIS (Web2), BUSINESS SCHOOL, WIRELESS STATION

In GARNETT TEETH and STILL LIFE the 3 like letters form part of the palindromic straddles ETTTE and ILLLI respectively.

THE KING OF STRADDLES

What phrase has the most different straddles? A contender for the ‘king of straddles’ must surely be CONTACT ACTION. It embodies the ladder straddle NTACTACTI (pattern 123423425), the 2 tautonymic straddles TACTAC and ACTACT, as well as the 3 Miami straddles TACTA, ACTAC and CTACT, making 6 straddles in total.

ENVELOPES

WORD ENVELOPES

Removing a sequence of straddling letters which either make a word, or which adhere to a specific letter pattern, leaves 2 sets of enveloping letters. In some cases, when brought together, the 2 sets of enveloping letters form a word. Such is the case in the following phrases in which the straddle is underlined and the enveloping word shown in brackets.
Word straddles: FIRST AIDER (firer), LEVEL CROSSING (lessing)
Tautonymic straddles: ALMA MATER (alter), GOOD ODDS (gods), MINOR ORDERS (minders), BOSH SHOT (boot)

Phrases in which only one of the 5 major vowels appears, any number of times, were examined in A Homovocalic Survey (WW 2005127).

Homocollsonantal Phrases
Homocollsonantal phrases are rare compared with homovocalic phrases.
GO GAUGE, OLEO OIL (Web2), NO ONE, PIPE UP (oed), TO EAT OUT

In these phrases, vowels and consonants alternate across the whole phrase:

LETTER SUBSTITUTION

Either one, or all, of the letters of the first word undergo substitution to form the second word.

ISOMORPHS
The 2 words which make each of these phrases have the same letter pattern but no crashing letters - they are isomorphs:
EMERY PAPER, FREE WILL, FULL TOSS, HIGH SEAS, KEEP COOL, PROOF SHEET, ROOT BEER, SEE OFF, STATION MANAGER, SUITING OURSELVES, TOOK HEED, YELLOW HAMMER

SHIFTS
The letters of some words, when shifted n places along the alphabet (looping round from Z to A) make other words. Thus ADDER +1 = BEEFS, BANJO + 4 = FERNS, and BUNNY + 17 = SLEEP. Careful scrutiny of the many shift pairs that have appeared in LonV (see ‘Curious Codes’ and ‘Super Ciphers’) and previous issues of Word Ways reveals that, in some cases, the two words can be combined to form a perfectly good, coined, phrase. The numbers in brackets indicate the number of steps the letters of the first word of the phrase are shifted to make the second word of the phrase.
BAR(13) ONE, FAT(8) NIB, FIX(22) BET, HOT(20) BIN, LAP(4) PET, PET(11) APE, TIE(22) PEA, WET(22) SAP

SIT PHRASES

In these 2-word phrases it is the 2 words which differ by a single letter: PALY P!LY, BIG WIG, COME HOME (cpf), DOWN TOWN, EFF OFF, FAVE RAVE, GOOD FOOD, HONG KONG, BAIL BALL, JET SET, BREAK BREAD, LAST PAST, MILL HILL, NOLENS VOLENS ROPE RIPE, PALL MALL, RIDE SIDE, SUCH MUCH, TICKET WICKET, MUSTER MASTER, VINO FINO, WAVY NAVY, YOO HOO

EDNA DEAN, GARY GRAY, LEON NOEL and other people which are listed on PhoneDisc have appeared in previous issues of Word Ways (95250 and 96037).

TWO-PHRASE PAIR ISOGRAM
Dictionary phrases which transpose into other dictionary phrases appear to be rare. One such is LIVES OUT = LOVE SUIT (both in cpf). Together, with exactly 2 of each different letter, the 2 phrases form a different type of phrasal pair isogram.

TRIO ISOGRAM PHRASES
These coined phrases, in which the 3 words are transposals, have exactly 3 of each different letter. They are phrasal trio isograms:
DAME MADE EDAM, DISCOUNTER INTRODUCES REDUCTIONS
AEIOU PHRASES
A few phrases, and hyphenated designations, with the 5 major vowels A, E, I, O and U in order and no other vowels, have appeared in Language On Vacation and earlier issues of Word Ways. Here are some additions:
From Bloomsbury Thesaurus, 1993: CANCELLING OUT, CHASTENING THOUGHT, FALSELY PIOUS, GATHERING CLOUDS, MAGNETIC SOUTH, PARCELLING OUT, TRAVELLING THROUGH

... and the longer phrases CHURCH OF IRELAND, BURTON IN KENDAL (UK), and UPON HIS PENALTY. A 4-word phrase which springs to mind is CUT OFF HIS HEAD.

ALPHOMIC PHRASES
In Alphomic Phrases (WW99229), I offered a series of coined phrases whose letters are arranged in alphabetical order. They include ACE FILM, BEEF GIN (short for ‘Beefeater’ Gin) and CHILL OOT (what the Scots do when the English ‘chill out’). Subsequently, I found the following phrases in the OED: A DEUX, AD FIN, ALL MOST and BE FIRST.

MONOGAMY

Monogamous words are those which are always, or nearly always, linked to one or more specific words. Here are a few of the phrases involved, taken from WW95164 and 95172. The monogamous words are underlined.
IN CAHOOTS (Cham), RIDE ROUGHSHOD OVER, FOREGONE CONCLUSION, MALICE AFORETHOUGHT, TAKE UMBRAGE, HIGH DUDGEON, RUN AMOK, FROM TIME IMMEMORIAL, TAKEN ABACK.

The above survey by no means reveals all the hidden secrets held by phrases. The 3-word phrase ROYAL ALBERT HALL, for example, incorporates 2 discrete straddles, the tautonymic ALAL and the name BERTHA. The phrase TO T URN RUSTY, in addition to incorporating the 2 discrete palindromic straddles TOT and URNRU, is made exclusively from second half of the alphabet letters.
